ITINERARY:

Day 01, Thursday 11/11/2010 – Departure London

All passengers are to report directly to EMIRATES AIRLINE Check in Desk London Heathrow Airport Terminal 3, for your flight from LONDON to Cape Town via DUBAI. Please check in and proceed to the departure lounge to board your flight. During the flight you will enjoy the free bar service, meals and in-flight entertainments.

Day 02, Friday 12/11/2010 - Arrival in Cape Town (D)

On arrival at DUBAI airport, follow the sign for TRANSIT to board your flight for CAPE TOWN. Please board your flight 30 minutes before departure.

During the flight you will enjoy the free bar service, meals and in-flight entertainments. On arrival at Cape Town airport in the morning, clear immigration, collect your luggage and follow sign for exit.

Watch out for our representative, who will be holding a placard for you and will be welcomed & greeted. Then proceed for a short orientation tour of Cape Town, prior to transferring to your hotel.

Dinner at Indian Restaurant. Overnight at hotel

DAY 03: Saturday 13/11/10 – Cape Town, Cape Peninsula & Table Mountain (B, D).

Today after breakfast at your hotel we proceed on a full day Cape Peninsula tour.

We then drive to Hout Bay, a picturesque fishing village known for its arts, crafts and centre of the snoek (fish) industry.

Take a cruise to Seal Island (weather permitting) to see the several thousand Cape Fur Seals which inhabit the island along with the rare Black Cormorant.

Not far along the False Bay coastal road is the entrance to the Cape Peninsula National Park at Cape Point with its rugged coastline, dotted with shipwrecks. The first stop is at the Cape of Good Hope, the most South-westerly point of Africa where two mighty ocean currents - one warm and one icy-cold - jockey for position.

A signpost identifies the Cape of Good Hope and also indicates its latitude and longitude - the ideal spot to have your photo taken. Also experience an exhilarating ride in the Flying Dutchman funicular, which rises 238 meters above the ocean to where the old lighthouse keeps watch over the seas.

On the return leg we continue to Simon's Town where hundreds of penguins wait to greet you at Boulders Beach dressed in their "dinner suits". They have a rather ungainly waddle, until they reach the water to display their lightning swimming speed.

Finally, we visit Kirstenbosch National Botanical Gardens, a world famous garden of indigenous plants, regarded as one of the top 7 botanical gardens in the world.
